Comments for Public Posting: Please freeze rent. I, like millions of others, lost my job due to Coronavirus, and I have no income coming in. I don't qualify for Unemployment and I don't have a savings just like 40% of the country doesn't. The eviction moratorium is not ethical to those of us who are struggling financially. You, the city, are currently working and have no issues paying rent, but those of us who lost our jobs due to the FORCED lockdown of the city of LA an the state of CA should Not be required to pay rent with proof of job loss due to the Coronavirus. It's not right to ask me, and millions of others, to repay months of rent after being FORCED NOT TO WORK due to the lockdown especially when we already struggle paying rent as is on a monthly basis. The eviction moratorium is not helping us, it's hurting us. Many of us live paycheck to paycheck, and we will be put into debt and have a high risk of becoming homeless because we won't be able to afford repayment of rent. PLEASE FREEZE RENT, the city is begging you.
