Comments for Public Posting: The city council needs to make this motion an urgent priority. From contacts at tenancy organizations and legal service providers, I've heard countless examples of these sorts of punitive rent increases in just the past week. Those on the front lines of these issues are scrambling to find ways to confront these serious disruptions to people's lives, and this law will provide a crucial tool in that fight. Without laws like this, Los Angeles will see more people sleeping in cars and on the streets. Please move quickly to make these new protections a reality.
