SUMMARY

On February 4, 2020, Council considered Resolution (Koretz – Huizar) relative to establishing oversize vehicle parking restrictions along segments of Santa Rita Street and Alonzo Avenue. Resolution states these street segments located adjacent to Crespi Carmelite High School are experiencing public safety issues associated with the parking of oversized vehicles during the daytime for extended periods of time. Council referred Resolution to the Transportation Committee for consideration.

At its meeting held February 12, 2020, the Transportation Committee recommended that Council approve the proposed parking restrictions and related LADOT instructions pursuant to Resolution.

Respectfully Submitted,

TRANSPORTATION COMMITTEE
