Comments for Public Posting: Please do not resume sweeps of homeless encampments. It's cruel, costly, and counterproductive to enforce sweeps in normal time and even more dangerous to do so during a pandemic. Not only is it against CDC advice, it is an expensive effort in a time when those millions can be spent to provide services and affordable housing to our community.

Comments for Public Posting: It is unconscionable to resume sweeps of homeless encampments in the midst of a pandemic. It goes against CDC advice, and the funds that we waste on shuffling the homeless community from one camp to another could be much better spent providing services and affordable housing to our community. Our city needs to drastically reimagine solutions for homelessness.
