Comments for Public Posting: Evictions are already traumatic for individuals and families, not to mention when they're without just cause. If you failed to close this loophole, thousands of families would lose their housing simply because their landlords wanted a profit, and you know we can't afford that in a city with a homelessness crisis as deep as ours. Loopholes like this are such low-hanging fruit in the fight against homelessness. Do your job and keep families in the housing they deserve.
