

WHAT ARE NEIGHBORHOOD COUNCILS?

LA's 99 Neighborhood Councils together form the grassroots level of the Los Angeles City government. The system was created to connect LA's diverse communities to City Hall, and was established in 1999 by an amendment to the City Charter. While Neighborhood Council board members are volunteers, they are public officials elected to office by the members of their community.

Neighborhood Councils advocate on issues like homelessness, housing, land use, emergency preparedness, public safety, parks, transportation, and sustainability. They also provide local expertise and a local voice on the delivery of City services to their communities.

WHO VOTES IN NEIGHBORHOOD COUNCIL ELECTIONS?

All stakeholders (or members of the community) can vote in Neighborhood Council Elections. Stakeholders may include people who live, work, own property, or have an interest in the neighborhood.

Neighborhood Councils have unique board seats such as youth, seniors, nonprofits, business owners, etc., on which to vote.

Due to public health and safety concerns related to the COVID-19 pandemic, the 2021 Neighborhood Council Elections will be conducted entirely by mail. In an all Vote-By-Mail election, a voter submits an application to establish their eligibility to receive a ballot. Once the application is approved, a ballot is mailed to the voter. Voted ballots can be returned by mail using the postage-paid envelope provided or dropped in a ballot drop box by Election Day.

To find out when voting is taking place in your Neighborhood Council, visit our website at clerk.lacity.org/elections.
