PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

PHILANTHROPY

Foundation Consultant 8/04 – present

Provide customized training to foundation program staff on topics as diverse as capacity building grants, general operating grants, ethics, financial analysis, due diligence, and other aspects of grantmaking. In addition, I assist foundations in the development of RFP's, strategic planning and facilitation, program evaluation, survey tools, grantmaking and program enhancements. A special focus of my work also involves assisting foundations in refining or creating grantmaking systems and in overseeing employment searches for program directors, officers, associates and grants managers. Foundation clients include: Conrad N. Hilton Foundation; California Community Foundation; Weingart Foundation; The California Endowment; Santa Barbara Community Foundation; and, Carl & Roberta Deutsch Foundation.

The Grantmaking School,

Grand Valley State University, Michigan 7/04 – present

Faculty

I am on the faculty of the highly regarded, national training program for foundation professionals entitled, "Advanced Proposal Analysis: A Critical Examination of Complex Issues." The Grantmaking School provides a university-based, practitioner-led curriculum in advanced grantmaking concepts. As a member of the faculty, I am responsible for delivering a variety of lectures on grantmaking best practices to program officers from foundations throughout the United States. I am also the author of several chapters in the accompanying manual which cover such topics as: due diligence, ethics, and organizational development.

The California Endowment 5/99 – 8/04

Senior Program Officer (2002 - 2004)

Consultant (2001 – 2002)

Program Officer (1999 – 2001)

During the first three years of employment I was responsible for statewide and regional grantmaking in excess of $30 million. This included responsibility for developing and managing two strategic initiatives: Native American health and a health grantmaking partnership with twenty-five community foundations. The development of these major initiatives involved convening key stakeholders, managing evaluation plans, disseminating findings, and developing funding criteria and objectives. During the last two years, my role was expanded to include intensive training of Program Officers and Program Associates for the foundation. My work also included advising on strategic initiatives and programmatic related improvements for the foundation, such as, the development of a new grantmaking program, a customer satisfaction survey, and grantmaking procedures.

Peninsula Community Foundation 5/98 – 4/99

Program Officer

Duties included recommending grants to the Board of Trustees, meeting with donors, reviewing consultants' reports, and developing and managing an arts fund RFP.

Areas of grant

review included child care, early childhood development, education, substance abuse programs, economic development opportunities, and welfare-to-work initiatives.

California Community Foundation 12/96 – 10/97

Program Officer

Responsible for grantmaking throughout Los Angeles County in areas as diverse as education, child care, affordable housing and violence prevention. Also responsible for the development of an RFP, selection of panelists, community workshops, awarding of grants and overall administration of three arts and culture funds.

TEACHING and LEGAL

University of California at Los Angeles, School of Law 1/93 – 1/96

Visiting Professor / Lecturer

Taught courses on immigration law and professional ethics.

Immigrants' Rights Office,

Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles 7/87 – 12/93

Staff Attorney

Directly responsible for a large immigration caseload, supervision of law students and co-counseling in major litigation in federal court affecting immigrants' rights.

National Immigration Law Center 6/96 - 11/96, 6/94 – 9/94, 8/86 – 1/87

Staff Attorney (part-time)

Primarily responsible for monitoring INS compliance with the ruling in Perez-Funez v. INS, a lawsuit which focused on the rights of undocumented children arrested by the INS. Duties also included conducting immigration law training seminars and providing advice to legal services attorneys throughout the country.

El Rescate 7/85 – 7/87

Directing Attorney

Represented Central American refugees seeking political asylum in the United States and Canada from the administrative hearing level up to the Ninth Circuit. Recipient of a Berkeley Law Foundation grant for the Refugee Children's Advocacy Project. Supervised a legal staff of three attorneys, paralegal and secretary handling an active caseload of approximately 1,600 cases. Additional duties included fundraising, media contact and public speaking.

Stroock & Stroock & Lavan (Los Angeles) 10/84 – 7/85

Associate – Litigation Department

Drafted pleadings and conducted discovery for general business litigation, including unfair competition, product liability and bankruptcy.

ERIC GARCETTI
MAYOR

June 15, 2022

Dear Ms. Alvarez:

I am pleased to inform you that I hereby reappoint you to the Board of Recreation and Parks Commissioners for the term ending June 30, 2027. In order to complete the process as quickly as possible, there are several steps that must be taken, many of which require visiting City Hall. If you require parking during these procedures, please contact my Commissions team by email at myr-commissions@lacity.org, to make arrangements for you.

To begin the reappointment process, please review, sign, and return the enclosed Remuneration Form and Undated Separation Letters within one week of receiving this letter. These documents are necessary to ensuring the most efficient, open, and accountable City government possible.

As part of the City Council confirmation process, meetings will be offered to Mitch O'Farrell, your Councilmember, and Councilmember John Lee, the Chair of the Arts, Parks, Health, Education, and Neighborhoods Committee, to answer any questions they may have. You will be hearing from a City Council committee clerk who will let you know when your reappointment will be considered by the Arts, Parks, Health, Education, and Neighborhoods Committee. Sometime thereafter, you will be notified by the committee clerk when your reappointment will be presented to the full City Council for confirmation. Once you are confirmed, you will be required to take the oath of office in the City Clerk's Office in Room 395 of City Hall.
