Summary: Summary: Sunland-Tujunga Neighborhood Council opposes the effort to allow developers to be granted demolition permits for properties that have been determined to be a public nuisance for the following reasons. What criteria must be met to determine that a site is deemed a public nuisance? We could see this process be abused to issue demolition permits to applicants that might game the system if there are no objective criteria in place to make that determination. Furthermore, what is to be done in those cases where a proposed replacement project has not been proposed or approved?
