Item Number:

Brief Summary: Motion: MTNHNC to support the proposed permitting for street vendors in an effective regulatory system that can protect health and public safety and economic activity.

Additional Information: The policy should consider the rights and investments of brick and mortar businesses including opportunities to expand and promote their business through street vending and with the overall goal of enhancing economic growth and the viability of neighborhoods. Such a policy should also empower the Neighborhood Councils to shape and enforce the application of this policy in their neighborhoods
