CHERYL HINES BIO

Actress, Producer and Director Cheryl Hines is a two-time Emmy nominee for her role as Cheryl David on HBO's Golden Globe Award-winning series "Curb Your Enthusiasm," the brainchild of "Seinfeld" co-creator Larry David. Cheryl is currently shooting and starring in the hit ABC comedy series "Suburgatory," opposite Jeremy Sisto and Jane Levy, returning this fall. Cheryl will also be seen this fall in the Vuguru produced web series "We Need Help," launching this September on Yahoo! Cheryl, starring alongside Rachael Harris, play exaggerated versions of themselves as actresses who share a personal assistant. In addition to creating and producing the show Cheryl also directs all the episodes.

This summer Cheryl filmed a co-starring role in the feature film COLD TURKEY, produced by Midway Films. Cheryl co-stars opposite Peter Bogdanovich and Alicia Witt. Set in present-day Pasadena, the film centers on the eccentric Turner clan, an upper-class family torn apart by secrets revealed over a Thanksgiving weekend. Patriarch Poppy (Bogdanovich) has invited his black sheep daughter Nina (Witt) home for the holiday – her first visit in 15 years. Nina immediately clashes with stepmother Deborah (Hines), and competes with her siblings (Holmes and Walger) for Poppy's affection – and money. Over three days, the family gradually disintegrates over who will get Poppy's money – only to discover he's broke.

Cheryl's feature film directorial debut, "Serious Moonlight" was released last year through Magnolia Films. The film premiered with critical acclaim at the Tribeca Film Festival. The screenplay was written by the late Adrienne Shelly, who directed Cheryl in the critically acclaimed "Waitress." The film is a dark comedy centered on the troubled marriage of a high-powered female attorney (played by Meg Ryan) who learns that her husband (Timothy Hutton) is about to leave her for another woman.

Cheryl's additional television projects included a co-starring role in the live action/CG adaptation of the Nickelodeon hit animated series "The Fairly Odd Parents" television movie "A Fairly Odd Movie: Grow Up, Timmy Turner!" opposite Jason Alexander. She had major story arc on the ABC drama series "Brothers and Sisters" and a starring role opposite Megan Mullally in the ABC Television Network series "In the Motherhood," a single camera comedy series chronicling the hilarious ups and downs of motherhood.

Cheryl has also produced and directed several television projects including Executive Producer and creator of the NBC Television Series "School Pride," a proactive,
