Re: Economic Development Committee Hearings on the Citywide Minimum Wage

Dear Colleagues:

As you know, I have committed to hosting several Economic Development Committee hearings on the citywide minimum wage issue, including hearings outside of this building. It is my hope that by doing so, we are creating as thorough and deliberative a process as possible. The University of California Berkeley study on the citywide minimum wage will be submitted on March 16th, and our hearings will begin the following week as follows:

Tuesday, March 24th, 1:00pm

Los Angeles City Hall
John Ferraro Council Chambers
200 North Spring Street
Los Angeles, CA 90012

Thursday, March 26th, 6:00pm

Watts Labor Community Action Committee
10950 South Central Avenue
Watts, CA 90059

Tuesday, March 31st, 6:00pm

Van Nuys City Hall
14410 Sylvan Street
Van Nuys, CA 91401

Thursday, April 2nd, 6:00pm
Museum of Tolerance
9786 West Pico Boulevard
Los Angeles, CA 90035

Please contact Marisa Alcaraz on my staff if you have any questions, and to confirm your attendance at the hearings.

Sincerely,
