DISCUSSION

The Los Angeles County Police Chiefs Association (LACPCA) received funding from the State of California, BSCC to enable front-line intervention services for Post-Released Supervised Persons (PSP). Based on a collective decision from the members of the LACPCA, each local law enforcement agency was allocated funds based on the current PSP population in their city.

The City of Los Angeles has approximately 33 percent of the entire PSP population in Los Angeles County. Currently, this population totals 4,313 PSPs. Based on these figures, the LACPCA has allocated $3,076,440.50 to the Department. This is the third year of funding for the Department. The grant will pay for $2,812,101.42 in sworn overtime for various programs, which will be distributed to geographical Areas and Metropolitan Division to supplement their fight against Part 1 crimes, specifically to conduct compliance checks involving Post-Released Supervised Persons as well as efforts to locate absconders. It will also be used for additional intervention services for the City's homeless and mentally ill populations. The remaining funds in the amount of $264,339.08 will be allocated for training and equipment.

Per Chief Medrano the Department's portion of the 3rd year AB109 funding is $3,076,440.50. Chief Medrano needs a single invoice from the Department in this amount and they will process the payment. The invoice method is the same as the previous years.

There is also an additional $750,000 of funding that is designated for the Department that has been set aside by the LA County Chiefs. This amount is set aside to fund a portion of a three-year study on AB109 as well as the activities being identified by the subcommittee chaired by Chief McClure and attended by Detective Bureau focused on training in dealing with the mentally ill. The subcommittee is responsible for proposing the plan to the LA County Chiefs for approval. A total of approximately $3 million has been set aside for this purpose (our portion is the $750k).

I trust the above information is what you needed... Please feel free to call me otherwise.
