Summary: On August 4, 2016 at a Brown Act duly noted meeting, the West Hills Neighborhood Council voted FOR Council File 15-1138-S1 by a count of Yea 22, Nay 1 and 2 absences.

We support the City Council instructing DONE to report on a process that would incorporate input from the Neighborhood Councils, including establishing a Homeless Advocate Program.

Neighborhood Councils are at ground zero on the homeless issue. NC members and stakeholders come in contact with homeless citizens daily. Working in our neighborhoods we can identify and refer homeless individuals and families to appropriate non-profit community partners and city/county outreach teams quickly and effectively.

Neighborhood Councils have the ability to organize, educate the community and make policy recommendations. We support CF15-1138-S1
