SUMMARY

On December 11, 2015, Council considered Motion (Price – O'Farrell) relative to naming the intersection at 45th Street and Ascot Avenue as Frank Denkins Square. Motion states that Mr. Denkins operated businesses in the community providing auto repair services, laundry/dry cleaning services, and the sale of office furniture. He established a strong and endearing reputation for his advocacy for underserved and minority owned businesses in Los Angeles and in foreign markets. Motion movers recommend approval of the proposed intersection naming to honor Mr. Denkins for his invaluable contribution to improving the quality of life in South Los Angeles and throughout the City. Council referred Motion to the Public Works and Gang Reduction Committee for consideration.

At its meeting held January 25, 2016, the Public Works and Gang Reduction Committee recommended that Council approve Motion's instructions relative to this matter.

Respectfully Submitted,
