In March 1941, Charlena D. Price relocated from Hammond, Louisiana to Los Angeles. She lived in South Los Angeles with her aunt, and resided on 38th Street and Griffith Avenue and later 38th Street and Vermont Avenue. Ms. Price graduated from McKinley Junior High and later Jefferson High School. She is the proud mother of two sons.

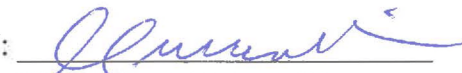

Ms. Price attended Los Angeles Trade Technical College. She was also a proud employee of the County of Los Angeles for 25 years. Over the course of more than 60 years, she remained an effective advocate for K-12 education, neighborhood empowerment and community building.

The naming of the intersection of 38th Street and Griffith Avenue as “Charlene D. Price Square” will commemorate her robust contributions to making the City of Los Angeles a better place for all of us.

I THEREFORE MOVE that the intersection of 38th Street and Griffith Avenue be named as “Charlena D. Price Square” in recognition of her contributions to making a better City of Los Angeles.

I FURTHER MOVE that the Department of Transportation be directed to fabricate and install permanent ceremonial sign(s) to this effect at or suitably near this location.
