Summary: Summary:

The NoHo Neighborhood Council believes that the recent action taken by the Los Angeles City Council regarding the issuance of on-site alcohol Conditional Use Permits is detrimental to the public's health and safety.

While the process for obtaining an Conditional Use Permit can be a long and costly journey for applicant, we believe that bypassing Neighborhood Councils is not the correct way to save time on the application process.

Neighborhood Councils must be at the table to advise what is best for their communities. Furthermore, not seeking our opinions is in direct conflict with the city charter.

We are an advisory board, and skipping over us will only continue to divide the gap between City Council leaders and their constituents and stakeholders
