Item Number:

Summary: As a result of rain in March 2018, which followed the La Tuna Canyon Fire last Fall there was a landslide threatening the integrity of La Tuna Canyon Road which has created a safety hazard. In addition to reinforcing the storm drain from one side under the road to another it is highly requested that an additional underpass be created due to the daily need for a wild life corridor across this road. There have many incidences of wildlife being killed including deer, mountain lions, bobcats etc. Bear also exist in this area of the Verdugo Mountains. Wildlife travel from the San Gabriel Mountains directly to the Verdugo Mountains
