Summary: The Arroyo Seco Neighborhood Council (ASNC) supports Council File 19-0528 calling for the Chief Legislative Analyst and LAPD to report back on instituting a program that prioritizes treatment instead of arrest for persons suffering from addiction and substance abuse. The Arroyo Seco Neighborhood Council believes that those suffering from addiction and substance abuse need a different route to recovery than incarceration. Our over-crowded jails are no place for addicts to get help and add to a prison population already stretching resources thin. This program would give those suffering from the effects of drugs and alcohol the help they need while preserving their dignity.
