SUMMARY

On November 4, 2020, Council considered Resolution (Cedillo - Price) relative to establishing oversize vehicle parking restrictions along impacted street segments in Council District One. Resolution states that the Los Angeles Police Department has identified several streets experiencing criminal activity and increased calls for police service associated with oversized vehicles that are parked overnight. Council referred Resolution to the Transportation Committee for consideration.

At its meeting held January 19, 2021, the Transportation Committee recommended that Council approve the proposed parking restrictions and related LADOT instructions pursuant to Resolution, as amended to delete the phrase in 30 days that appears in the second resolve action.

Respectfully Submitted,

TRANSPORTATION COMMITTEE
