Summary: This motion, which would reduce the allowable rent increases on Rent Stabilized units, while also removing the three percent floor that currently exists, will meaningfully address this dire issue, and provide Angelenos with the financial breathing room that—for many—could be the difference between stability and eviction.

OCTOBER 28, 2021

Severe rent burdens and stagnant wages are driving more and more Angelenos into poverty and homelessness.

This motion, which would reduce the allowable rent increases on Rent Stabilized units, while also removing the three percent floor that currently exists, will meaningfully address this dire issue, and provide Angelenos with the financial breathing room that—for many—could be the difference between stability and eviction.

The Echo Park Neighborhood Council strongly supports this motion.

Respectfully,
Echo Park Neighborhood Council
