Dear Mayor Garcetti and Councilmembers Krekorian, Price, Koretz, Blumenfield, and Bonin,

I write to express my deep concern regarding the Mayor's Proposed Budget for the Fiscal Year 2020-21.

I urge the City Council to amend Mayor Garcetti's budget to reflect the values of our community: we want more social services, employment programs, public health resources, rent relief, and restorative justice programs, not more policing. We request the City Council adopt the People's Budget LA.

While the Mayor recently announced he would decrease LAPD funding by up to $150M, this symbolic gesture is simply not enough. There needs to be a DRASTIC reduction of LAPD funding and an un-armed, community-based, alternative policing system –on top of more funding for social programs. People are marching through the entire city demanding systemic change and justice for the 600+ black people killed by police in LA County since 2012. We implore you to listen to the demands of your constituents.

Public safety should no doubt be one of the City's highest priorities. But investments in housing and job security, mental health care, and after-school programs are investments in public safety. By cutting these services, this budget will not make Angelenos safer.

Furthermore, protests in Los Angeles following the murder of George Floyd have exemplified the issue of police brutality, including the indiscriminate use of tear-gas and rubber bullets against protesters, demonstrating the need for an overhaul of the LAPD. We are presented with an opportunity to improve upon the past instead of repeating its mistakes. It is in that spirit that I ask you for a compassionate budget—and through it, for a more just, equitable, and humane Los Angeles.

I urge the City Council to adopt the People's Budget LA and amend Mayor Garcetti's budget to shift resources from the LAPD to social services, housing, employment programs, restorative justice programs, rent relief, and public health efforts.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Kasunic

Attn All,

I hope your weekend is going well. All things considered, mine is going well, or rather as well as it can be in the midst of a global pandemic. That being said, I'm writing to you today to encourage you to defund the LAPD and adopt a people's budget. I'm asking you all to reduce the LAPD's budget and invest that money back into our community. Furthermore, Police Chief Moore needs to be fired and an independent investigation should be launched to ensure that each and every officer that engaged in police brutality against peaceful protesters is held accountable for their actions.

According to an email I received from Councilmember Ryu, who by the way, is the only one who has gotten back to me in any capacity from the numerous emails I've sent to you all, it is "mandated by the City Charter that the Mayor's proposed budget must be adopted by default on June 1st, and goes into effect on July 1st. However, the budget is a living document that can, and often is, changed throughout the year - especially as new issues, needs and circumstances arise, even after adoption and start of the fiscal year on July 1st." This leads me to believe that it is not too late to make the drastic changes to the budget that our city desperately needs. So let's not wait. It is time for change. The time has come for Los Angeles to end the systemic racism that has been so deeply embedded in our city's structure.

To quote Councilmember Ryu's Chief of Staff Nicholas Greif again, "Homelessness and inequality are not solved through increased policing, but through dedicated work at every level of government to prioritize people and communities in need. Getting there will take work and structural change". I couldn't agree more, and the first step toward this societal change can be taken by reducing the police's budget. This issue may go beyond Los Angeles, but we can make our city better because our city should be better. Black Lives Matter, so it's time our city starts acting like it. Defund the LAPD so that we can invest in social services, housing, aid for the homeless, and medical care. Adopt a people's budget and start proving that your allegiance is to your constituents and not the Police Union.

Looking forward to hearing from you all.

All the best,
