Comments for Public Posting: My name is Katherine McNenny and I am a resident of CD14. I was living Downtown during the last redistricting process and remember very clearly how nasty it was. Recent media reports have shown a light on some of the favoritism and bullying between City Council members that plagued the last process. I am genuinely concerned about the potential lack of transparency and/or conflicts of interest of any newly appointed Committee Members or administrators. I therefore support a redistricting process that gives the Public access to all communications received by and between appointed Commissioners as well as a selection process tilted towards transparency, inclusion, and independence.
