Summary: The Central Hollywood Neighborhood Council SUPPORTS the motion by CMs Ryu and Harris-Dawson to have the relevant City agencies explore the feasibility of using federal Municipal Liquidity Facility funds to provide rent and utility debt forgiveness to Angelenos negatively economically impacted by COVID-19. Between 16% and 25% of CHNC's stakeholders live in poverty. 90% of our stakeholders rent. Over 560 of our stakeholders are homeless, with over 450 having no shelter at all. As fully 3 out of every 100 people we serve have already lost their homes, CHNC supports all efforts to keep other economically burdened Angelenos from experiencing that fate.
