STACY TWILLEY

Stacy Twilley is a Los Angeles-based media entrepreneur and currently the co-founder of GreenSpacesLA, a nonprofit that partners with underserved urban neighborhoods to create gardens and pocket parks designed to improve outdoor equity and foster community unity in Los Angeles.

For seventeen years, Stacy was co-founder of Modern Luxury Media, the largest city regional media company in the United States. Publishing monthly magazines in 14 cities, Stacy helped create and establish the largest network of local media focused on the people and ideas important to the communities they served.

Throughout her career, Stacy has been devoted to promoting local and national civic engagement. Stacy is founder of two national non-profit projects: iVolunteer.org, to promote community involvement and local volunteering (2008-2010); and The Youth Advisory Council, the high school girls' component of Off the Sidelines, an organization that supports women running for political office (2013-2016).

Stacy also serves as global ambassador of International Medical Corps, an international NGO headquartered in Santa Monica, California, and has worked with them in Ethiopian UNHCR refugee camps on the border of South Sudan to advocate for GBV services and safe spaces for women and girl, and in Amman, Jordan with Iraqi teen girls to introduce a pilot refugee mental health program, which has since been adopted in several countries. In addition, Stacy volunteers in the Child Life Department at Children's Hospital Los Angeles, where she works with families and children in the Cardiac Care Unit, and she was recently appointed to CHLA's Child Life Council.

Having lived in Los Angeles for more than twenty years and raised her three daughters here, Stacy is deeply dedicated to Los Angeles and its diverse communities and believes that every Angeleno deserves for their voice to be heard. Stacy earned a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism from the University of Michigan and a Master of Arts in Social Science from the University of Chicago.

Dear Ms. Twilley:

I am pleased to inform you that I hereby reappoint you to the Human Relations Commission for the term ending June 30, 2026. In order to complete the process as quickly as possible, there are several steps that must be taken, many of which require visiting City Hall. If you require parking during these procedures, please contact my Commissions team by email at myr-commissions@lacity.org, to make arrangements for you.

To begin the reappointment process, please review, sign, and return the enclosed Remuneration Form and Undated Separation Letters within one week of receiving this letter. These documents are necessary to ensuring the most efficient, open, and accountable City government possible.

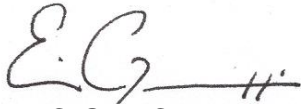

As part of the City Council confirmation process, meetings will be offered to Paul Koretz, your Councilmember, and Councilmember Gilbert Cedillo, the Chair of the Housing Committee, to answer any questions they may have. You will be hearing from a City Council committee clerk who will let you know when your reappointment will be considered by the Housing Committee. Sometime thereafter, you will be notified by the committee clerk when your reappointment will be presented to the full City Council for confirmation. Once you are confirmed, you will be required to take the oath of office in the City Clerk's Office in Room 395 of City Hall.
