Diana Mangioglu has served as Mayor Garcetti's Budget Director from September 2018 to June 2020 overseeing the development and implementation of the proposed budget released by the Mayor annually. She also served as the Assistant General Manager of Finance and Administration with the Los Angeles Department of Convention and Tourism Development (CTD) since 2015. Her spectrum of duties included oversight of Administration, Human Resources, Management Information Systems, and Financial Management for the CTD. Prior to that she worked ten years with the Office of the City Administrative Officer for the Debt Management Group where she worked on the transition of the Los Angeles Convention Center from public to private management and administered the Capital Finance Administration Fund and also for the Citywide Services Group as a budget liaison for several departments.

Diana received her Juris Doctorate degree from Loyola Law School in 2006 and has been an active member of the California State Bar since 2007. She has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science with a minor in Business Administration and International Relations from the University of Southern California. She currently resides within the City with her husband and three children, Alex (9), David-Beg (7) and Maggie (2).
