Comments for Public Posting: Please do not even consider banning rodeo or barrel races or team roping. California has a rich history of gentle horsemanship practices learned from the Spanish who were masters of gentle and humane horse training. This would be an outrage and this is a direct attack on a diverse, rich, and healthy way of life.

Comments for Public Posting: This is In response to banning Rodeo due to perceived animal abuse. I was born and raised in California and the historical western tradition of Rodeo events depicting ranch life along with the bond we have with our animals was what help raise me to be a responsible, adjusted and service minded citizen. Animals used in Rodeo are sometimes treated better than you will find anywhere. When competing with a horse there are hours and hours spent together to develop that bond to be a team. The Professional Rodeo Assoc. has SEVENTY well enforced rules to protect the animals! Look at the actual number of injuries! Is this another attempt to cancel culture? Do your homework; visit ranches, jackpot competitions and the Rodeos! Research the rules involved. Don't let deep pockets take this wonderful sport away!
