Comments for Public Posting: Do you know what is cruel nature is cruel. Every day an animal dies to feed a predator. Human beings are the apex predator. And if you eat meat you are cruel. You know what else is cruel, football, hockey, UFC, boxing, restleing on and on. People enjoy sports. Rodeo is a sport that highlights the skills of the rancher who uses these skills every day to put food on your table. So if you want to end rodeo and don't want to be a hypocrite you should quit eating meat first.

Comments for Public Posting: The biggest misconception the vast majority of urban public citizens, is that rodeo is an inhumane sport involving animals. Typical uneducated liberal thinking! Our rodeo animals are a part of our family. They are highly intelligent, well taken care of, and indispensable. You'll be hard pressed to find any domestic dog or cat that is treated better. There are also rules and regulations that also protect the well being of rodeo animals used within the events. Please see that this ban is overturned. This is an American piece of culture that also needs to be left untouched!

Comments for Public Posting: The western heritage has been a way of life for my family and I will fight to keep it. I do not believe there is grounds to take away rodeo. We love the animals and what they offer us. I don't want anyone to tell me what I can or cannot do. Instead of California telling everyone else how to live when you need to look at yourselves.
