Comments for Public Posting: WOW!!! I am stunned to say the very least. How could a city that is going to host the Summer Olympics in 2028, ban equestrian events in your city? Planning on telling the IOC, "Los Angeles does NOT allow 'Horse' events in our city?" would love to beat fly in the wall for that discussion. Los Angeles was once a dusty city that had dirty streets, cowboys, saloons, horses & cattle roaming the land. It became modernized when Hollywood made the "Cowboy" a star in movies. "Rodeo" dates back to the 1880's. It is part of American culture for those that live & work with horses and cattle. Yes, those who think that these animals are cruelly treated, think again. While rodeo bulls get a bad reputation for being mean and ornery, they are bred this way. ANY bull will buck to remove anything placed on their back, period. Rodeo bulls make it look good. Bronc or Bronco riding is the same. These horses are bred to buck when anything is put on their backs. They are also well treated and cared for. Neither animal, bull or horse are mistreated in any way, shape, or form. Most are insured for thousands of dollars. The better the bucking the higher price for the semen. By NOT allowing "RODEO" events your city prevents a "Teaching and Learning" opportunity for both adults and children. Instead of banning this part of Americana, embrace it as part of your city history.

Comments for Public Posting: There's no place for animal torment and torture in a civilized society, especially for 'entertainment' like a rodeo. Rodeos have fallen heavily out of favor with Americans. The use of prods, shocks, spurs, etc., to get a response out of a terrified animal in a rodeo is so archaic, it's pathetic that LA would allow it. Rodeos appeal to a tiny fraction of the population. People don't like to see animals suffering, especially in the name of enjoyment! It's bad enough that animals are subjected to screaming crowds, loud speakers, music, etc., but to add physical abuse into the equation is demented. Please support the Rodeo Device Ban. People need to turn their attention towards humane, productive activities instead of cruelty.

Comments for Public Posting: Rodeos, and stand-alone bull riding events, glorify animal abuse as they masquerade as family entertainment. Horses and bulls do not buck naturally. These are scared animals bucking to escape torture devices common place at rodeos, such as electric prods, flank straps, and spurs. The L.A. rodeo device ban is modeled after a similar ordinance that passed in Pittsburgh, PA, in 1992. Pittsburgh is now considered a "blackout city" for rodeos. Click here to read the posted L.A. Rodeo Ordinance.

Comments for Public Posting: Banning Rodeo , if I was cruel to my horses they would not be healthy . If I didn't take care of my land it wouldn't produce food for people in cities . The care we give our animals and land , most people wouldn't believe or understand . Banning Rodeo is an act of ignorance by people who choose not to be educated to the truth.
