Comments for Public Posting: If you know anything about rodeo, then you know that the animals in the sport are the farthest from being abused. To the average person that knows nothing about farm animals or the sport of rodeo, then it might look like the animals are being abused; but in actuality they are treated better than some people's dogs. If you take away the sport of rodeo then you take away a big part of Western history. Please reconsider on your decision. Get people's opinion other than someone that went to 1 rodeo in their life and came to the conclusion that its animal abuse .

Comments for Public Posting: I support the L.A. rodeo device ban. There is no excuse for animal abuse. Rodeo animals are not acting naturally when they buck and writhe. They are reacting to pain and fear. This is not fun and should not be viewed as entertainment.
