Comments for Public Posting: The Western Lifestyle is one to be proud of and support. Good old fashioned values and a work ethic that are important to sustaining America. I urge you to fully explore this issue and not just listen to a small group of individuals with few facts. Those that participate in the western way of life are stewards of the land and great caretakers for the animals. America was the land of the free and home of the brave. Let Americans be free to practice the western way of life and be brave to stand up to those encouraging you to limit these freedoms.
