Comments for Public Posting: It appears this is another example of the woke community attempting to tell us what we cannot do. Why don't you focus your efforts on cleaning up the City of Los Angeles. Instead you want to destroy our values and country. The western lifestyle is an important part of our culture. Get out of your ivory tower and take part in the western lifestyle. Might open your eyes. There is a world outside the city of Los Angeles that apparently you don't know.
