Comments for Public Posting: To ban livestock, horse shows and rodeo's in the city of Los Angeles will cause thousands of the city's residents to lose revenue. To do so will ultimately remove the opportunity to inform and educate many of the area's inhabitants of the value of all livestock. Regardless of the means and methods of utilization.

Comments for Public Posting: Rodeo sports are part of our culture and taking this away is taking part of who we are . I take my sons every year to the PBR and they love it and it has become part of our yearly outings. As Mexican American this is something that we love and my children as second generation Mexican Americans have learned to love taking this away is unfair.

Comments for Public Posting: I along with many others are concerned with the proposed ban on rodeos. The livestock involved with these events are taken care extremely well and the professionalism shown by the event producers and the participants is unmatched. Please use open minds and ensure a thorough investigation of both sides of the fence. It would be good to take the time and visit an event as a guest of the rodeo producer to see firsthand why these animals are so special to the contractors and event organizers.
