Comments for Public Posting: Banning equine events and shows is disgraceful, and not even a smart move economically. Horses, owners, trainers, competitors and fans contribute enormous revenue in California and many more states. If you check the data you'll see how beneficial and profitable it is to have equine sports, shows, breeding facilities and international equine events. Horses pose not threat to anyone's economy. Local or nationally.

Comments for Public Posting: Please do not cancel such an important part of American culture! We don't harm our animals , we love our animals. This would effectively cancel an entire group of people. This is very misguided by people who really don't understand the industry.

Comments for Public Posting: Rodeo and all of its events are essential to the American way. Cowboys treat their animals and all livestock with a great deal of respect. Banning rodeo will ruin The American Way.

Comments for Public Posting: Recently, the Los Angeles Equine Advisory Committee (LAEAC) published a letter of NON-SUPPORT for the Ban in the L.A. Times. It is the role of the LAEAC to advise the City on equine issues. Not surprising, research conducted by LCA found a bias in that one LAEAC representative owns a private ranch that hosts team roping events, including calf roping. Anyone with a heart knows it's wrong to tackle a baby animal, slam it to the ground and tie its legs together. If you did this to a puppy you would be charged with animal abuse. Thanks, Cristina E. Zois, Greek Ambassador's wife

Comments for Public Posting: I support Los Angeles Rodeo. Reggie has and will always be a staple within the horse back community. I went to his first ever rodeo as a kid at the age of 8. I am now 25 and still go every chance that I get. Especially being an African American such as myself it is vital we as a whole have a piece of culture of own shown for the world to be-able to see the roots of cowboys and cowgirls predominantly portrayed as the “White American” centerfold. However, the horseback riding culture was derived originally from our African American ancestors. Reggie brings not only all people of all backgrounds together to take part in its history but it is a place in the L.A community for kids and all ages to have the chance to partake in something which keeps youngsters minds off being in the streets and instead learning the basic principles of responsibility. Please do not take that away from us. We have Reggie’s back and fully support what he does for not only the rodeo community of Los Angeles but for the city as a whole! Thank you for your time and considers towards this matter. Justice shall prevail !

Comments for Public Posting: As an equestrian and a native Californian, please save our western heritage and vote no on the rodeo ban. There is a great deal of misinformation circulating about general practices and how the animals are treated. Thank you.

The Rodeo Device Ban has an overwhelming 72% support among 600 L.A. voting residents who were polled. Late last year, the City Council's Personnel, Audits, and Animal Welfare Committee agreed with the people of L.A. and passed the Ordinance. The next step is the City Council's final vote. There is no excuse for animal abuse, and this is clearly animal abuse. Taking pleasure from the suffering of others - animal or human - is not something that should be endorsed, ever. We have an obligation to help each other learn compassion. Please ban the rodeo device NOW.
