Comments for Public Posting: This sports allows our children to feel connected with there roots gives them cofidence, strength and motivation. It expands there ability to multi task and work and care for each one of there team mates including there animals unfortunately some schools don't have the success to create a bully free zone and this sport is all about working together inspiring and motivating each other.

Comments for Public Posting: Charrería is an important sport not only to myself, but towards my family and culture. It is a beautiful sport that resembles the beautiful culture of Mexico. It shows the importance of horsemanship and respect for the livestock used.
