Comments for Public Posting: I am writing because I'm concerned that you want to ban rodeos and similar events in your city. As a lifelong horse owner I am extremely disappointed that you don't understand that activities like these are supportive of children and families and a way of life that is healthy and important. These animals are not abused, they are very valuable to the stock contractors and everyone connected with rodeo. Our daughter was in high school rodeo. It was a great experience for her and our family. Rodeo kids have to keep their grades up or they are not allowed to enter. Rodeo families in professional rodeo support and help each other. You will not find many sports where competitors will loan each other gear and root for each other. If you take the time to meet with stock owners, horse owners and others involved with any equine sport, you will learn that these animals are very important to all of us.

Comments for Public Posting: Rodeos are cruel and abusive of animals. This is not what we want to promote to society as acceptable.
