Comments for Public Posting: The language in this legislation is too broad an all encompassing making it the first step making all equestrian sports and including horse ownership illegal. This legislation and it's far reaching affects do not represent the will of our equestrian community or the educated general public. This legislation only represents the will of the far extreme animal rights activists who are completely uneducated in basic animal and livestock husbandry and ownership.

Comments for Public Posting: I'm born & raised in LA Co-began riding at 4 & have had horses my entire life. I am ABSOLUTELY sure that the equine outdoor way of life taught me responsibility, compassion, budgeting, animal husbandry, etc. The friends I've made are lifelong and continue to this day. I've competed in horse shows since I was 8 and it taught me how to lose (& win) graciously & to strive to be better & build self confidence. Being with nature and outside builds our immune system along with doing healthy physical activity. LA cannot weaken and fall victim to the cancel culture and the animal rights activists. We equine competition, rodeo and pleasure riders put lots of money into the local economy and do not cause trouble or crimes-our animals are our lives! The LA Government needs to realistically look at horse sports first hand and not believe the toxic vitriol spewed by the activists.

Comments for Public Posting: Don't ban the rodeo! All animals that take part in all events are well taken of and loved. The rodeo not only builds long loving relationships with animals and people, it teaches discipline and perseverance to riders of all ages. Don't break what you don't understand.

Comments for Public Posting: It's NOT JUST RODEOS. This is an attack on ALL EQUESTRIAN EVENTS including horse shows, reining events, dressage, cross country, hunter/jumpers to name a few. That the LA city council choses to allow a miniscule faction to destroy the love and livelihoods of hundreds of thousands of individuals of ALL RACES AND CREEDS is unfathomable. I SUPPORT RODEO AND THE EQUESTRIAN AND WESTERN LIFESTYLE .
