Comments for Public Posting: When the city of Los Angeles has so many agenda items that are CRITICAL to citizens' safety and well being, just the idea of cancelling the ability for citizens who enjoy and support the sport of rodeo is just short of crazy. Where does the woke culture of insanity stop? I did not see one city council member or mayor suggest that this was a campaign issue. Let's stay focused on the unhoused, crime, infrastructure, and the other important items that would fill this page if listed out. It will cost the city MORE money to try to enforce such nonsense, money that should be used more wisely in truly helping its citizens. Before you take such action please educate yourselves on what rodeo people do to protect their animals from harm and then make your decision. You will then understand the other side of your proposed actions.
