Comments for Public Posting: Bull riding is animal abuse. Bulls buck because there is a tight cord tied around the bull and placed between the penis and testicles. This is torture for the bulls. This is why I support the Los Angeles Rodeo Ban and I implore the L.A. City Council to maintain it. There is no excuse for animal abuse.

Comments for Public Posting: Rodeos, and what they do to innocent animals, are disgusting and unnecessary. As a child growing up in places like Mexico, Texas, and Oklahoma, escaping rodeo culture was unavoidable. You can feel and smell the fear and anxiety of the animals before and after they are tortured into "performing". The injuries are horrific and are often hidden from the public because of how they are treated, or left to suffer. Bulls are gentle animals, but they are literally tortured into reacting by being poked, prodded, stabbed, kicked, and punched so they buck as hard as they can when the pen is opened. Just as archaic as matadors and the running of the bulls - it's all terror and torture for the animals so stupid people can feel superior and pretend we're better than these wonderful creatures who only want to live and be left alone. We are a disgusting species. We bully, kill, torture, and destroy because we can and because we believe we have the right to. We are not needed on this planet- we are the ones destroying it. Animals were here first and they are not playthings or entertainment. Stop worrying about money and try leaving a legacy of care and understanding for what we have and lose more if each day. What will we do when humans are all that remain?
