Comments for Public Posting: The UK has scientifically proven that animals are SENTIENT beings. This means that they feel pain, fear, confusion, and you are allowing these sentient bulls to be treated horrifically. the end result will be that your country is deemed unfit for those who agree that this practice is not fun, not sporting, and not on equal terms with the bulls. Please reconsider your support for this awful practice. I will be very grateful to know your thoughts on this.

Comments for Public Posting: I Jeannie Ramirez from Austin Texas learned just how Cruel Rodeos were 22 years ago. Before that I was guilty of taking my daughter to them but Ignorance Is Bliss right, until I saw undercover videos of rodeos and went on a Quest to investigate do research and Yes it's true Rodeos are Cruel all on the backs of these poor animals for human entertainment and people need to know there are deaths every year at rodeos and No One is taking responsibility for these Terrible Deaths. These City Officials who do nothing are part of the problem and this is your legacy for you Great Great Great Grandchildren you leave. You can't get away from this fact. I don't know how you sleep at night and I find this disgusting and we will look back on this history years from now and which side will you be on?????????????? SHAME ON YOU!!!!!!!
