Comments for Public Posting: Rodeos have been on the decline since the 70's, and for good reasons. Please Los Angeles, BUCK RODEOS. Rodeos are nothing but inherent cruelty The so-called cowboys use inhumane practices and painful devices, including electric prods, flank straps, and sharpened spurs to encourage aggressive behavior and exaggerated bucking in bulls and horses. As a result, these animals suffer injuries that can and do include broken backs, necks and legs. This is sick and disgusting, I urge Los Angeles to ban rodeos, stop this cruel and barbaric violences to non consenting animals. This is not culture, it's cruelty !

Comments for Public Posting: Rodeos are a cruel game of animal abuse. Terrified calves made to run from horses to what must appear as giants to them, roped, thrown savagely to the ground screaming. This is what children see. This is what they learn. Bulls locked in a small cage, tormented with sticks and shocked to enrage, while a human is tied to their back. Game on, bull is released to throw human off. Repeat. This is what children see. This is what they learn. Animal cruelty. Terrified sheep running amok with children on their back should not happen. Los Angeles is a forward thinking city. This is an archaic game of animal cruelty. Just because it has always been, does not mean it still should be. Just because a culture in this society discounts animal cruelty as fun, it still should not be acceptable in a civilized society. PLEASE ban rodeos. Thank you for your time.

Comments for Public Posting: I was so relieved to see that the city of Los Angeles was going to join other future forward, cities and ban rodeos. Rodeos are cruel and brutal towards farm animals. Years of documented animal cruelty are the proof that this must be completed. Thank you!
