Comments for Public Posting: Rodeo is an all American sport that has been around for at least since the 1860's. It is unfathomable that you would try to ban this sport. All participants are true trained athletes, including the livestock that are raised to participate in the sport. These animals are true partners in the sport and are taken care of in exceptional ways with quality nutrition, exercise, and training. California and the west were created by ranchers, farmers and rodeo. It brought community to the frontier. Rodeo is our heritage and must be protected!! Sincerely, Kimberly Parish

Comments for Public Posting: There is no excuse for animal abuse. Under no circumstances whatsoever is it allowable to perform or witness cruelty to animals. Animals at rodeos suffer broken legs, broken backs, paralysis amongst other devastating injuries. I wholeheartedly support the L.A. Rodeo ban.

Comments for Public Posting: The ordinance to ban rodeo and bull riding was withdrawn following concerns raised about its impact on communities of color as well as the lack of peer input in creating the proposed law. You are hurting your community by continuing to ban rodeo!

Comments for Public Posting: When I think of all the groups and businesses that make money from these events, I am confused. Aren't you short on revenue? So, you have no problem with men or women beating each other--or maybe men beating women since I am guessing you are all for gender-free boxing. Football is violent but so is walking or driving on your streets. Are bicycles going to be banned? You can die on those just trying to maneuver through traffic. And how about pets? Isn't it cruel to keep pets confined in a house or even a yard? We are concerned about cage-free chickens. Shouldn't we worry about pen-free dogs? I'm sure they would much rather be running loose. So let's be fair. 1. All dogs and cats get to run free in your city. No leash laws. 2. Bicyclists may now drive on the sidewalks to preserve their safety. Pedestrians are advised not to walk there--everyone needs to be on a bike. 3. Support the homeless and drug addicted on your streets by buying them drugs. Oh wait--you already do that. 4. Scream about clean air but allow feces on your sidewalks. And you complain about an animal who lives a good life, is fed well and taken care of so it can perform somewhere between eight seconds to a minute once a night, maybe three nights a week if that? Maybe you should start with the problems you have created and leave the rodeo industry alone.

Comments for Public Posting: I wish today I find the stopping of rodeo's in Los Angeles to be a poor decision. If nothing else animals are rarely hurt - in the face of factory meat production they is nothing but MASSIVE abuse. Please reconsider this and allow the Rodeo culture to thrive.

Comments for Public Posting: Please please ban this horrific display of animal abuse . We should be ashamed this is what we are teaching our children to be acceptable. It is a disgrace.

Comments for Public Posting: RE: Rodeo Ban Greetings, I am urging the City Council to SUPPORT the rodeo events and bull riding. I am expressing a strong opposition to any type of ban on rodeo events along with bull riding and I am pushing back on the false assertions by rodeo ban proponents that rodeo events were a form of "animal cruelty". I must urge the council to NOT PLACE A BAN ORDINANCE on the rodeos and bull riding in Los Angeles. Thank you in advance for choosing to SUPPORT THE RODEO AND BULL RIDING. Sincerely, Connie Mager

Comments for Public Posting: I'm disappointed that you would even consider a ban on rodeo and rodeo events that are woven into American and Mexican American culture. First of all, the animals are always given an advantage! Secondly, the rodeo stock are a valuable part of rodeo and are well cared for. It's one of just a few events where there is always a prayer for the contestants, the audience and the livestock. Everyone in rodeo helps and cheers for each other, also something uncommon in most competitions. Kids who participate in rodeo are held to good grade standards and are taught the responsibility of caring for animals. Please deny this ruling. Thank you for your consideration.
