Comments for Public Posting: Please be done with this senseless tradition. Of all things, we humans, legislate for changes regarding sexuality and equality but meanwhile, can't change a damn thing when it comes to unnecessary animal suffering! Where are our priorities as evolved and intelligent beings? Stop bickering over petty things and cease violence against innocent beings to start with... then all other acts of peace will follow naturally.

Comments for Public Posting: As an LA resident, I write to strongly urge City of LA to BAN all rodeos and bull riding events. This is sanctioned torture, NOT culture or sport!

Comments for Public Posting: The PBR bull riding event, at the Honda Center this weekend, is just another traveling circus that uses animals to make money. The rodeo industry boasts that the animals do not suffer and that the animals have hit the "animal lottery". In fact, animals used in rodeos routinely suffer extensive internal injuries, including bruising, broken ribs, and punctured lungs. Please stop the bull riding events in Anaheim this weekend and in the future. How we treat animals is a direct reflection on who we are as human beings. As Mahatma Gandhi says, "The greatness of a nation and its moral progress can be judged by the way its animals are treated." America is a great nation. Let's stop the bull riding events and show others that America treats all of its animals humanely!

Comments for Public Posting: As an LA resident, I write to strongly urge City of LA to BAN all rodeos and bull riding events. This is sanctioned torture, NOT culture or sport. It is time to treat all animals humanely and do our best to avoid inflicting pain and suffering to animals. What the hell are we teaching our children if we sanction animal abuse through rodeos and bull riding?

Comments for Public Posting: Please take this type of activity off the table, especially in California. This event is totally inhumane and is for entertainment purposes using animals as a money-making venture. What is there in the cruel treatment of another living-being?
