Comments for Public Posting: Rodeo is a sport just like basketball, football etc they are entertaining and fun to attend. They also exhibit the many talents that these Cowboys and Cowgirls have. I always believed that Cowboys and girl were only white I was thrilled learn that they come in many colors. This is a part of history that needs to be told and enjoyed by many please don't take this sport away from so many that have grown to love and enjoy as wells as be so proud of. They don't list black Cowboys and girls in the history books they need to continue to exist for all to see.

Comments for Public Posting: The horse industry's core values have always been protecting and enhancing equine welfare. While it's true there is the occasional bad actor, they are few and far between. Most horse owners, trainers, and breeders put the health and welfare of their horses above all else. Nevertheless, animal extremist groups work feverishly to eliminate any kind of use and enjoyment of horses. Please do not restrict people's rights by placing such restrictions on the western tradition of rodeo. There is plenty of animal welfare laws already in place. These new restrictions only serves to limit/hamper rodeo with the ultimate goal of animal rights extremists to sever the animal:human bond and ban all animal industry including the ownership of pets.

Comments for Public Posting: Our ministry politely requests that the Los Angeles City Council bans rodeos because they are an exhibition for animal cruelty - which the Bible condemns (Proverbs 12:10). Additionally, rodeos hurt animals for entertainment, which the Bible also condemns in Genesis 49:5-6.

Comments for Public Posting: Rodeo is an integral part of our heritage as Angelinos. A ban on rodeos and Charreadas places a ban that disproportionately affects minority communities. Furthermore, rodeo does not in fact harm animals as disputed. All of the individuals involved in rodeo take more caution and care of their livestock than the average dog owner. They know how to handle their animals and how to participate in the sport safely for both the rider and the animal.
