Summary: The Housing Committee for the City of Los Angeles held a regular meeting on October 26, 2022 and moved to approve recommendations for Council action relative to a request for a summary of funds from the Housing Authority of the City of Los Angeles (HACLA), a breakdown on matters related to funds eligible for resident services, resident perspectives on the HACLA's budget practices, resident engagement and programming priorities; and Resident Advisory Council (RAC) budget priorities. The Los Feliz Neighborhood Council supports this motion as it would give the public greater transparency on how public money is spent on housing support services and related matters in the City of Los Angeles.
