Summary: The Board of the Studio City Neighborhood Council (SCNC) agrees with City Council File 22-0002-S106 to oppose SB 930 (Wiener) which would allow select cities in California to issue permits extending the cutoff time for alcohol sales to 4 a.m., which could lead to an increased incidence of drunk driving, and exacerbate the noise and/or traffic disturbance suffered by residents living in abutting cities; and force neighboring cities and/or counties to absorb increased public safety enforcement costs.
