Title: Street Vendors / Sidewalk Vending / Attacks / Violence / Enforcement

Position: SUPPORT

Summary:

The NoHo Neighborhood Council wishes to express, in the strongest terms, its support for Councilmember Blumenfield's motion CF 22-0959 and its solidarity with the street vendors who were the victims of vicious hate crimes perpetrated by the same individual as reported in the aforementioned motion.

Los Angeles is a richly diverse city. Our many cultures speak to one another through art, music, and especially in our world-renowned food scene in which street vendors play a vital part and have since the city's inception.

Every single Angeleno deserves to feel and be safe and protected without condition. To that end, while we support Councilmember Blumenfield's motion wholeheartedly, we would like his requested report to also include a clear and thorough explanation as to how a man, wielding an ax and shouting racist epithets at a defenseless street vendor, got a second opportunity to do it again. We are interested to know how it is that this homicidal person completely evaded accountability in the first place. Thank you for your attention to this matter.
