Communication from Reseda Neighborhood Council to Board of Neighborhood Commissioners

The Reseda Neighborhood Council,

Noting the appearance of sometimes conflicting advice given by Department of Neighborhood Empowerment personnel to NC officials,

Further noting the high turnover rate in neighborhood councilpersons,

Understanding that information relayed is often lost as shifts in leadership occur, contributing to the appearance of the existence of conflicting advice,

Desiring to decrease duplication of workload on Department of Neighborhood Empowerment personnel, and Acknowledging the importance of transparency, particularly in what procedures Neighborhood Councils are obliged or recommended to follow,

Hereby requests that all procedural questions from Neighborhood Councilpersons directed to Department of Neighborhood Empowerment personnel be posted, along with responses, online in perpetuity in a conspicuous place,

and that, these questions and responses be categorized by topic and easily searchable,

and that,

both the originating NC and the answering entity at the Department of Neighborhood Empowerment be identified as part of the searchable content posted online.

Sincerely,

Reseda Neighborhood Council
