SUMMARY:

In February, 2023, the Ad Hoc Committee on City Governance Reform began a series of meetings relative to Independent Redistricting Charter Reform and expansion of the City Council.

The Office of the CLA presented information to, and gathered reports for, the Committee. In addition, Community Organizations, including the LA Governance Reform Project, Common Cause, Our LA gave presentations on Redistricting Reform.

On October 5, 2023, your Ad Hoc Committee on City Governance Reform Committee heard final recommendations from the CLA relative to the proposed Independent Redistricting Commission Program, including the purpose and organization of the Commission, Commissioner qualifications, responsibilities, and restrictions, selection process, redistricting criteria, public meetings and public comment, commission process, records and data, funding, administrative and operational issues, legal matters, and the creation of a City Data Bureau. After providing an opportunity for public comment, the Committee moved to approve the recommendations as summarized in Attachment A of the CLA report dated October 16, 2023.

Respectfully Submitted,
AD HOC CITY COMMITTEE ON CITY GOVERNANCE
