Summary: The STNC SUPPORTS CF23-0166. The issue of homelessness in youth is a multifaceted problem. We have children being sent, alone, across our border, being trafficked by cartels. We have children terming out of foster care with no skills, no job and nowhere to go. We have children escaping violence in the home. We have children being lured into drugs and prostitution. The City needs to investigate ways to offer these children a place of safety and job training in order to give them a productive future-
