Anton Farmby is Vice President of SEIU United Service Workers West, which represents over 45,000 janitors, security officers, airport workers, and other property service workers throughout California. In 2023, as the leader of the Security Division at USWW, Anton oversaw the bargaining and ratification of the best security contract of any union in the country.

Anton began organizing security officers in 2009 when he was elected as President of the newly-formed SEIU Local 2006, Security Officers United in Los Angeles ("SOULA"). SOULA's campaign to organize security officers got its strength from the bonds that Anton helped build between local religious leaders, L.A. labor unions, and community organizations. In 2010, Anton helped oversee the merger between Janitors, Security Officers, Stadium/Arenas and Airport workers who formed SEIU United Service Workers West.

Anton got his start in the labor movement in 1998, through an organizing campaign while he was working at Misericordia Home, a facility that cares for physically and mentally disabled adults. In 2000, Anton became an Organizer at SEIU Local 1 in Chicago, Illinois. While at Local 1, Anton helped lead the Residential Maintenance Contract Campaign, mobilizing thousands of union members for higher standards in the industry. He also worked on campaigns to organize school bus drivers, custodial workers, and public housing employees.

In 2004, Anton and his wife moved to Cleveland Ohio where he became the Director of SEIU Local 3, representing 10,000 union members in the Midwest. From 2005 until 2009, Anton played a critical role in Cleveland's political community serving on Mayor Frank Jackson's transition team, the Selection Committee for Cleveland Hopkins Airport Director; a Co-Chair of Cleveland Jobs with Justice, and Chairman of the North Shore Federation of Labor, AFL-CIO.

Anton currently heads the organizational equity and inclusion work for USWW. In that role, he is heading the work with the USWW Executive Board and leadership to build an inclusive union where everyone feels a sense of belonging, respect, and value that fosters meaningful long-term engagement to build true solidarity across differences among our members. Anton currently resides in Los Angeles with his wife Hope and two children, Kimberly Jordan and Kaleb Joshua.
